Kyoto Armchair

The Kyoto Armchair is a meditation on form and stillness. Defined by strong lines and quiet geometry, it feels grounded yet intentional—an object that holds space rather than demands it. Its sculptural profile brings a sense of calm structure to the room, inviting moments of pause, reflection, and ease. Part of the Rove Kyoto Collection, the armchair embodies a considered approach to living—where design is felt as much as it is seen, and every detail exists with purpose.
